

T.B.

Hey Thompson! I was just sitting here watching everybody be bored so I decided to write a note. Then I decided to write you (hey, hey, hey) God lord! They didn't even announce the announcements. Gophers stay in their home rooms. They oughta let the 90's stay + let us run stu. coun. meet. I believe in abbreviations. I'm glad this is humpday. It's really past humpday 'cause we get out tomorrow. Maybe Friday or Sat. or Sun. I can go see Bucket. Which do you think? (She's babysitting close to me) I want her to help me on Espana. I know it but there's a couple of runs I get ~~s~~ screwed up on. I'm gonna make those songs perfect! Or else. If Monterey is on a Thurs. + you work (only if ya work) I might go to ~~the~~ a F.S. Game. If Bucket'll go. Cindy'll be working. Did I tell ya when Cindy's parents move to Albuquerque she's moving in with a friend? Well ya know now! The lady's divorced and Cindy babysits for her. The only problem is ~~is~~ the lady does n't have a phone. How am I ever gonna talk to her

If ~~if~~ she don't have a phone, she works + we go to different schools. ^{Figure that out huh?} And you were supposed to be smart. I bet I don't finish this page before the bell rings. see I don't like folding up 1 page notes with writing on both sides. Bell's gonna buzz. . . .

So here I sit in home room trying to finish a Dr. Pepper. . . . No really here I sit in w. hist. hoping Grandy don't catch me writing up. Wish we hadn't missed ya at Wendie's last nite. We were talking and my mom goes "What if Kelley walked in right now?" I told her that was ridiculous. Maybe she wasn't so far from right. Shock Shock!

We ate fast (I was starving after a DDip ice cream cone for lunch) then we went to the store. The reason I'm telling ~~ya~~ ^{ya} this is 'cause P. on Change cause she just gave us some work) ~~if~~ we heard this song on the radio. Guess what it was? I think of my all time favorite song. (not "Lady") I heard "It's a way to heaven!" Can you believe that! And on KSEL-FM too! Once every 3 days they play a good song (Maybe) I realized just how sh-itty our car system is then. It didn't sound half as good as it does on yours. Who put that system in your dadda can anyway? I had reminds me did you ask your dad about the can for tomorrow? I hope you find something whether it be the little blue can or the bug. Else we'll be SOL. I had to ask my mom to pick me up today. Stomach cramping. Oh well I've talked long enough. Writing all these ^{notes} makes me feel a little guilty cause I need to write Stephen & Lori.

I'll sign off.

Love,
Ted
