

T.B.

Hey!

I guess since I'm just 'a' sittin' here I'll write ya. I'm sittin' behind him so he'll never know. (Pen change) We're grading papers so I gotta use red. I hope I was clear in my "chart" note yesterday. Next time you tell me I talk too much I'll write it shorter. That'll teach you 'bout foolin' with me. (Ha Ha Ha!) Time \rightarrow Thompson! Slow it down. You wouldn't believe what Mrs. Sessums did during our test (A dog just walked in + everybody went crazy. She tried to take him (her) out ~~but~~ he wouldn't go. It was so cute!)(I'm crazy!) today. She let us have 5 minutes with ~~our~~ our notes, 5 minutes with the textbook
+ 3 minutes to ask anybody any questions (except her). I bet I still flunked. What made mad was I memorized those equations and wrote 'em down and then she said we could look in the books. It's funny how Gandy gets off on other subjects.
One minute he's talking about the Punic Wars and then Kelly came in to ask if she could help a lady take her dogs home (during class) and then he starts talking about laws concerning students. You didn't understand a word I just said. Moving onward. I still don't know how you're gonna get me out too this afternoon. If you tell Mr. A I haven't got another ride home he'll probably say go ahead and come back and pick her up but I'm still rootin' for ya. I hope you can pull it off. Did you hear what they said about schedules?

I'll just go ahead and put my personal schedule down. Budd'm supposed to take pe. Oh well. I was thinking what if I don't (Penchange. I'm in 4th now) make it to "B" Band. I mean I will of course but what if I didn't? So much for dreary subjects. How'd ya like the candle presentation? are you gonna sell your candles like a good little boy? (No) I hope your right about our getting out. But why can'tcha ~~try~~ try for 4:10 or 4:15? Maybe you'll have a better chance then. Is there some special reason for your leaving at 4?
I have a Geometry test next. I better go study. Bye

Love
Jeb
