J. Bear Kelley,

Hi! I decided I wouldn't aggravate ya today since ya feel bad I do too, but I decided not to let it get me down. I guess you probably feel worse than I do. I'm so relieved that I played off. Oh yea I got a Geometry test next I guess I better make this short. It's gonna be awful tonight not being able to yell. I'm gonna bring plenty of peppermints. You can have some if you want them. But you may wanna stick to your sweets. Here we are Debbie Kelley the invalids. Remember to take the books your gonna take home with ya to 6th. I will too. My mom's out of town today so if I'm 5 minutes late nobody's gonna be standing there with a stopwatch. Oh well I guess I'll go study. Cheer up!!! See ya later.
